

YP - Day 2 - 01/17/2021

Saturday, January 9, 2021 10:07 PM

1. First, let's take a quick review of last week's course>

- What's the HTML - HTML stands for Hypertext Markup Language, Markup language means that it does not execute the program, but is loaded and displayed through the browser - Tree
- What's the CSS - CSS stands for Cascading Style Sheets, it is a language used to style webpages and make them look nice. - rendering engineer
- Set properties for different items in CSS - background for <body>, and color for  - image you are painting the tree

2. Let's make a birthday card as the first project in this class.

- New project
- Create html, create CSS, create JS files
- Write the HTML first
 - Make the outside card
 - Add a Title
 - Add a image
 - Add a button
 - Make the inside card
 - Add a Title
 - Add a image
 - Add a message
 - Add a button
- Write the CSS file
 - Properties for outside
 - Properties for inside